Topic & Purpose:
Travels with Sky is a travel blog/website where "Sky" posts blogs about their travels around the world. The blog owner is able to share their experiences and give advice about traveling to various countries around the world. Since they only recently started, the website doesn't have too many posts yet, but there are posts that are coming soon in the future.

Extra Elements:
-   Form for contacting the web owner, located in contact-us.html
-   Plugin: vidbg to create the video in the header, located in index.html
    -   Link: https://github.com/blakewilson/vidbg
